New harmonious lines

Stiegmeyer care beds captivate with their home-like appearance and multitude of design options. With the Venta and Elvido model ranges, a new detail provides for an even more pleasing look. The ends of the longitudinal struts of the chassis are now fitted with 4 plastic covers as standard. With their silver-grey colour, they exactly fit the tone of the chassis.

The covers encase mechanical parts and make the lines of the bed more harmonious. Additionally, the smoother surface can now be cleaned even more easily and thoroughly. If required, the plastic elements can be removed without the use of tools.

Elegant decor covers

Upon request, more complete covering is available. Both plastic elements cover the entire head ends of the chassis and can be supplied in many homelike wood decor colours. Those who only need a covering for the head or the footboard can also just have a single element. The decor covers conceal technical parts of the care bed, giving it a particularly elegant, individual appearance. They are also easy to clean and remove, contributing to safe and reliable hygienic conditions.

Available for selection are the Lindberg Oak, Style Oak Cinnamon, Havana Cherry, and Natural Beech decors.
